

Information and Enrolment Day

Thursday 25 June and Thursday 9 July - 11am to 6pm (ACST)

Make an Appointment - Register here (Virtual, Telephone and Face to Face appointments available)

The world has turned upside down and many of us are re-evaluating career options, changing things up or building on current skills and knowledge. This challenging environment has also presented a whirlwind of policy review and development.

Are you grappling with the need to respond to the changes or perhaps you see a future in the policy development space. Our Master of Public Policy and Executive Master of Public Administration could be options for preparing you to work in a complex policy environment.

From Indigenous Knowledges to Social Sciences, from the Arts to Disaster Management, we have short courses and full degrees to suit every enquiring mind and to help you upskill or diversify your career prospects.

Register for the CIFAS Information and Enrolment Day and our friendly staff and lecturers will be available to chat, answer your questions or help with the enrolment process for coming Semesters.

We have increased offerings in Semester 2 and Summer Semester, so ask us about study options that will suit your needs.
